

We can specify a linear transformation from \mathbb{R}^3 to the polynomial vector space $P_3(x)$ by specifying where we send the basis elements. Here, we color code where we send the basis.